It reproduces only once the Celestial Pillars are destroyed, which are activated only after defeating the Lunatic Cultist. May be during their open phase when they show their eyeball. Ranged Build - There are a couple of different options here: the most powerful gun in the game is the Vortex Beater, or you could opt for the Electrosphere Launcher if you've specced into a more explosive build. This is no good if you're talking to the Nurse to get a quick heal, as she will be killed pretty much instantly. Wings! They are incredibly important because they will be the main way that you dodge the Moon Lord's attacks. These are unkillable enemies that will stay relatively still and fire eyes and bolts at you. You need to defeat all three eyes: the two in its hands, and the one in the middle of the Moon Lord's forehead. Rod of Discord is an invaluable Hardmode tool for the Moon Lord Fight. Mage Build - The Nebula Blaze has massive DPS but a large Mana Cost, you should use it alongside Betsy's Wrath, as the Moon Lord is vulnerable to the defense-reduction debuff that Betsy's Wrath inflicts. The Empress Wings are a good bet. Well, having the Nurse nearby is always important, as she can come in very clutch if you're just about to die. The weapons will vary depending on whether you're a melee character, a ranged character, etc. Here is everything you need to know about defeating this end-game boss. Who is The Moon Lord? This boss is tough. This fight is not one that you want to venture into unprepared. Duke Fishron's Wings are not a bad idea, although they can be hard to grind for. Not only does the fight include dealing with several different parts of the Moon Lord, all of which want to kill you, you will also have to handle the debuffs and unkillable (yes, unkillable) enemies that the Moon Lord spawns. Asphalt is crafted with: Two Stone Blocks One Gel Crafted at a Blend-O-Matic That doesn't seem too bad, but your platform is going to have to stretch up to 1,000 blocks in each direction from your base. Why close to your base? Oh, and it also has a Tent tongue that will damage you and will inflict the debuff of the moon bite, preventing life-theft bonuses, as you could get from the spectrum armor. The larger ground is put together enough asphalt. Spooky Armor, like updating 1.4, is the best approach to the game summon. At the same time, the Lord of the Moon will take you aiming with his Deathray (don't get hit it from it) and shooting fantasmal spheres against you. For PC (the update of Journey's End 1.4) The best armor for each build is the following: Beetle Armor is an ideal armor, even if you can want to get more creative with a chlorophy mask, and Valhalla Knight Set instead. These explode for AOE damage after a short time. The Lord of the Moon is the final boss of Terraria. Super healing potions, made with celestial fragments, can be very useful in this fight. The Lord of the Moon will also generate fantasmal eyes that fly around the whole place 'Aip 'Aip itacilbbuP ilocitA 374(notsiA yrraH orovaL azneS E etteT elocciP noC enosreP ecap noN ehcnA etnemterappA remaG orP neM troiS-itnA ehc hguorhtklaW E atelpmoC adiuG airarTe :OVISSECCUS .itruagesni id Harry Alston Here we have a clear guide for each of the different classes: there are also some differences depending on whether you are playing on version 1.3 of the console, or 1.4 update for PCs and mobile devices. It will instantly teleport to your cursor, which could be just what it takes to escape the death ray of the Lord of the Moon. Both the terraprisim that Stardust Dragon Staff are extremely powerful weapons in this battle. And this is just an attack.
